

TIRED OF NORTHERN DEMOCRACY.

During the last two years some mighty changes have been working in the South. The citizens have just reached the conclusion down there that there is nothing in sitting on the verandah of a hotel all day chewing tobacco and talking about politics "before the war."

Recently Gen. Rosser, an ex-Confederate General, thus talked to a reporter in Minneapolis.

"The South is improving, and what it wants now is business. We have discovered that the Democratic party—our Northern ally—is not the one we should be identified with, and the South will hereafter act independently for its own interests."

"Do you mean that the South has found that the Republican party at the North is the one that balances the Democratic party in the South in intelligence?"

"That is just what I mean. The Democratic party of the North is not what the South wants. It is made up of the worst elements at the North. It has got all the Anarchism, Nihilism, Whiskism and other isms. The Republican party embraces the business men and energy of the North, while our Northern ally is made up of copperheads and those who are disloyal. If the Republicans nominate John Sherman it is my opinion that there will be some very independent voting in the South. I do not wish to say that the South is going over to the Republicans, for I am not sufficiently posted to say that, but I think that Virginia and North Carolina will go Republican. The temperance element will play no part in a political way in the South, and neither will the labor question. The South wants business now; and it will cut loose from its Northern ally and bend its energies to get it."

FOOLISH DEALERS.

The wine dealers in California are throwing every possible opposition in the way of the pure wine bill. Their action has become a matter of newspaper notoriety, and its effect on the Coast can only be bad. The suspicion is at once aroused that the wine dealers of California object to the bill because they do not deal in honest wine. The result will be a heavy blow to California wines all over the world. Dealers must indeed be short-sighted who cannot see that the operation of a pure wine law in California would boom their wines everywhere. With the unequalled facilities for making the best of wine in California one would suppose that it would not be necessary to adulterate it. Wine can be made at a profit when sold at fifteen cents a gallon, and the man must indeed be a thoroughly miserly and mercenary wretch who would adulterate such cheap wine. The California dealers in fighting the bill simply proclaim the fact to the world that a pure wine bill pinches and galls them. The fool killer would have steady work down there.

LET'S GRAB IT.

If there is a revolution in the Sandwich Islands the United States ought to swoop down and grab the country. During all these long years the United States never grabbed anything yet, while the old mother country, England, was reaching for everything in sight. We would have lots more respect for Uncle Sam if he would reach out and nab something that doesn't belong to him. If he doesn't, some other nation will. The U. S. has always been too slow on the grab, and gets left before the draw.

—The auction sale of Holstein Fresian cattle which took place on the 16th at Oakland Cal., was largely attended and the prices brought were higher than any breed of cattle ever bought in California under the hammer, where so large a number were sold. A lot of 46 calves averaged $140 apiece ranging from six weeks to ten months old.

—The luck the railroads are having with the Inter State Commerce Bill has induced a number of people to petition for a revision of the ten commandments. They want the 4th section suspended for a starter.
